Poaching

Watlington Petty Sessional Division, 30th. December, 1851, 1880-1970 Oxford History Centre, Cowley, QS 1852/1/L2/76 58.

Between 1834-1852 there were 17 convictions for trespass for game. For example, in Chinnor, 1834 Richard Seymour was convicted of trespass for game, Oxford History Centre QS 1834/3/L1/21. Other items of theft included fruit and vegetables, in 1840, John King was convicted of stealing apples, pears and walnuts, QS 1840/4/L3/27 1839, and in 1839 William Seymour was convicted of stealing swedes and turnips, QS 1839/2/L1/22 and again in 1844 for stealing barley. Many of the ove were repeat offenders. In 1902, Chinnor residents, Bert and William Hopkins were convicted for trespassing for game on John North's land and Mrs. Evans was convicted of stealing four wood faggots in 1911, and Sidney Hewitt for trespass in December 1912. South Bucks Standard, 3 October, 1902, Bucks Herald, October 28 1911. South Bucks Standard, 24 December, 1912.

Dangerous driving

Earnest Gomm of Chinnor was summoned for driving two horses and waggon without reins and was fined. Henley and South Oxford Standard, 13 November, (1908). In 1903 Henry Turner of Bledlow was summoned for not having reins to his horse and cart. There was no one leading the defendant's horse but another horse and cart was tied behind him and another man was in it who was in charge of both horses and carts. Although this had been the custom for many years one man being in charge of two carts was illegal. Bucks Herald, 22 August, (1903)
